VOLUME OF HIGHWAY TRAFFIC ENTERING CANADA
ON TRAVELLER'S VEHICLE PERMITS

The number of foreign vehicles entering Canada on traveller's vehicle permits in July, 1948 was 12 per cent higher than the previous record for July, established in 1947. Increases were recorded in all provinces except Manitoba and British Columbia, the latter province still suffering from the effects of adverse publicity respecting damage from the floods of last spring. July totals for all provinces were barely one per cent less than those of August, 1947, the month in which the greatest volume of highway traffic on record entered Canada.

The number of entries on permits in the first seven months of the current year shows an increase of 11 per cent over the corresponding period in 1947.

ON TRAVELLER'S VEHICLE PERMITS

The number of foreign vehicles entering Canada on traveller's vehicle permits in August 1948, was 0.3 per cent lower than in the same month last year, and 22.7 per cent higher than in August 1946. When compared to August 1947, decreases were recorded in Quebec, Ontario and British Columbia, and increases in all other provinces. Labour Day week-end in the current year fell on September 4, 5, and 6, whereas in the preceding year it fell on August 30, 31, and September 1. Hence the heavy flow of traffic entering Canada for the holiday occurred in August in 1947 and in September in 1948. Had it not been for this fact, volume of traffic in August would have been higher in 1948 than in 1947. Traffic in the first eight months of the current year was 7.1 per cent higher than in the corresponding period in 1947.

VOLUME OF HIGHWAY TRAFFIC ENTERING CANADA
ON TRAVELLER'S VEHICLE PERMITS

Foreign vehicles entering Canada on traveller's vehicle permits in September, 1948, totalled 253,564, an increase of 27.5 per cent over the same month in 1947. The increase was largely due to a heavy inflow of cars for the Labour Day holiday, and more than made up for a small decrease recorded in August. Traffic was heavier than last year through ports of entry in all provinces except Nova Scotia.

During the first nine months of the year the number of vehicles entering Canada on permits was 1,573,434, an increase of 9.9 per cent over the same period in 1947, and more than the total number of vehicles entering in the whole of the year 1946.

The number of foreign vehicles entering Canada on traveller's vehicle permits in the year 1948 was 1,824,000, a new record for this type of traffic and 10 per cent higher than the previous high mark established in 1947. All provinces shared in the increase over the previous year except British Columbia which suffered from the effects of floods in May and June.

Foreign entries on permits in December totalled 47,500, an increase of 26 per cent over the same month in 1947, whereas similar traffic in December, 1947, showed a decrease of 5 per cent from the year before.

VOLUME OF HIGHWAY TRAFFIC ENTERING CANADA
ON TRAVELLER'S VEHICLE PERMITS

The number of foreign vehicles entering Canada on traveller's vehicle permits in January 1949, totalled 32,590 an increase of 15.4 per cent over the previous record for the first month of the calendar year, established in 1948. This is practically the same situation that existed a year ago when an increase of 16.2 per cent occurred over the same month of 1947. Increases were recorded in all provinces except Manitoba, Saskatchewan and British Columbia the latter province showing a substantial decrease. These divergent trends across Canada may have been influenced by unusual weather conditions.

Foreign vehicles entering Canada on traveller's vehicle permits in March totalled 46,200, an advance of less than 1 per cent over the same month last year, but a decrease of 3 per cent from the record March traffic of 1946. A drop in traffic entering through ports in Ontario almost balanced increases in the other provinces. The Ontario decrease was influenced by unusually heavy traffic in March 1948, which was 59 per cent greater than in March 1947.

The number of entries during the first quarter totalled 114,600, an increase of 6 per cent over the same period in 1948.

ON TRAVELLER'S VEHICLE PERMITS

SEPTEMBER, 1953

Foreign vehicles entering Canada on traveller's vehicle permits in September totalled 305,200, or 31 per cent more than in September of last year. As Labour Day occurred on Monday, September 1st, 1952, most visitors for the holiday entered Canada in August of that year, whereas, in 1953 the great inflow of American holiday-makers is recorded in September. If August and September are combined, 84,500 more vehicles entered Canada on traveller's vehicle permits in 1953 representing an increase of 11 per cent. Cumulative data for the first nine months were 9 per cent higher than in the year before.

Foreign vehicles entering Canada on travellers' vehicle permits totalled 91,588 in November, a drop of between 5 and 6 per cent when compared with the same month of 1954. VOLUME OF HIGHWAY TRAFFIC ENTERING CANADA ON TRAVELLERS' VEHICLE PERMITS

JANUARY, 1956

The number of foreign vehicles entering Canada on travellers' vehicle permits in January totalled 56,076, a decline of over 2 per cent or 1,375 fewer vehicles than the first month of 1955. All provinces contributed to the decrease with the exception of Ontario and entries to Newfoundland and Nova Scotia direct by vessel. The inauguration of a new service between Bar Harbour, Maine and Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, no doubt contributed to the substantial increase in the number of vehicles being transported direct by vessel from the United States to Nova Scotia.

The number of foreign vehicles entering Canada on travellers' vehicle permits declined 19 per cent or 38,283 fewer entries when compared with the same month of 1955. The backward nature of the season due to cool wet weather in many parts of Canada may have been influential in retarding the number of travellers entering Canada in May. Cumulative entries for the first five months were 8 per cent lower than the previous year.

A new record for the month of August was established in the number of foreign vehicles entering Canada on travellers' vehicle permits. The new record of 574,926 entries represents an increase of 9 per cent or 48,188 more than the same month of 1956 and 28,741 more than the previous record established in 1955. Entries for Labour day week-end were made in August, hence the new record may not be indicative of a general increase in traffic.

The number of foreign vehicles entering Canada on travellers' vehicle permits in February declined 14 per cent when compared with the same month of 1957. Travel in the Atlantic Provinces and Central Canada was hampered by severe winter storms but substantial gains were recorded in the Prairie Provinces, British Columbia and Yukon Territory. Cumulative entries for the first two months were 2 per cent heavier than the previous year.

AUGUST, 1958

A new record for the month of August was established in the number of foreign vehicles entering Canada on travellers' vehicle permits. The new record of 587,647 entries, however, is partially inflated due to a change in administrative procedure at certain ports in New Brunswick. If adjustments are made to estimate the effect of this change in procedure, the new record would appear to be about 0.5 per cent higher than August of last year rather than 2 per cent as shown. The effect on cumulative data would be a decline of about 1 per cent for the first eight months instead of 0.5 per cent as shown.

AUGUST, 1959

Foreign vehicles entering Canada on travellers' vehicle permits amounted to 575,338 in August, a decrease of 12,309 over the same month of the previous year. This represents a decline of some 2 per cent. However, this decline would be somewhat greater if the data were adjusted for the change in administrative procedure at selected New Brunswick ports. Cumulative data for the period from January to August indicate an increase of 33,634 additional permits when compared with the previous year. Similarly adjusted data would show a slight decline in the eight months.

VOLUME OF HIGHWAY TRAFFIC ENTERING CANADA
ON TRAVELLERS' VEHICLE PERMITS
SEPTEMBER, 1959

In September there was an increase of 51,594 vehicles or 20.5 per cent in the number of foreign vehicles entering Canada on travellers' vehicle permits to a total of 303,562. This sharp rise which was widely distributed by provinces was presumably partly a reflection of the later date of Labour Day this year. There was a cumulative rise of 3.9 per cent in entries in the period from January to September but the rise in comparable traffic was less than this if adjustment is made for a change in procedure at certain ports in New Brunswick which affected the data before September.

With this issue this publication is being temporarily discontinued because of the effects of a change in the procedure of the Department of National Revenue in dealing with the entry of non-resident vehicles. Publication is expected to be resumed when a new form of presentation is developed for showing comparable monthly statistics of traffic.
